About Us

Initiatives for Just Communities (IJC) is a non-profit, charitable organization that operates four community justice programs: El'dad Ranch, Touchstone, Open Circle, and CoSA. These programs support people with intellectual disabilities, Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD), and those who are currently, or have been previously, incarcerated. IJC is committed to restorative justice practices, which honour the community and foster a sense of belonging.

IJC supports many Indigenous and culturally diverse participants. As an organization, we aspire to have a workforce that is representative of the diversity within our communities. We value diversity and aim to foster an inclusive work culture where everyone's contributions and professional development matter.

The Position

El'dad Direct Support Workers work alongside adults with intellectual disabilities to support them in their daily life. Depending on the program, the support will vary: assisting with cooking and cleaning, working alongside individuals on community jobs, attending appointments, or joining in community event, and much more. Direct support workers provide supports to adults with intellectual disabilities to reach their goals and live a fulfilling life.
